

JENNIFER A. LEE

(240)780-1058 | yourspeechfriend@gmail.com | www.yourspeechfriend.com

Education

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| Present | New York University , New York City, NY
Master's Degree Student in the School of Communicative Sciences and Disorders
Current GPA: 4.0 |
| 2019 - 2020 | University of Maryland , College Park, MD
Post-Baccalaureate Student in the Hearing and Speech Program
GPA: 4.0 |
| 2004 - 2008 | School of Visual Arts , New York City, NY
Bachelor of Fine Arts |

Experience

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| Fall 2022 | National Rehabilitation Hospital, Graduate Student Clinician <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Assess, diagnose, and treat individuals with cognitive-communication deficits, aphasia, swallowing impairments, voicing deficits, dysarthria, and apraxia secondary to traumatic brain injuries, spinal cord injuries, and tracheostomy– Establish specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound (SMART) speech therapy goals for adults in an acute inpatient setting– Collaborate with multi-disciplinary healthcare teams to set goals, share resources, and meet the needs of patients |
| Summer 2022 | The Stroke Comeback Center, Graduate Student Clinician <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Provided person-centered group therapy to individuals with aphasia based on a Life Participation Approach to Aphasia (LPAA)– Implemented use of high tech and light-tech AAC devices to support functional communication– Conferred with family members and care partners to establish appropriate services |
| Summer 2022 | Leonia Speech Therapy, Graduate Student Clinician <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Executed evidence-based speech, language, and literacy interventions to monolingual, bilingual, and English Language Learning clients across the lifespan with articulation/phonological disorders, language disorders, apraxia, autism spectrum disorder, and stuttering– Conducted comprehensive speech and language evaluations for a range of clients from ages 2 to adult– Counseled and made recommendations to parents about communicative strategies, light tech AAC, and cultivating bilingualism |
| Spring 2022 | Loudoun County Public Schools, Graduate Student Clinician <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Provided intervention services for children grades pre-kindergarten to 3 articulation disorders, expressive-receptive language challenges, cognitive-linguistic deficits, intellectual and developmental disabilities, and students who stutter– Interpreted standardized and non-standardized assessment results– Implemented use of AAC modalities in the classroom (e.g., LAMP, PECS) |

June 2021 - Present	National Aphasia Association, Virtual Coordinator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Plan and host weekly virtual events such as the NAA game club, book club, travel club for people with aphasia – Organize and moderate Ask the Expert webinars with leading professionals in the field of aphasia and neurology, such as Audrey Holland, PhD, SLP, BC-ANCDS – Liaise with National Aphasia members, affiliates, and Board of Directors
Spring 2020	Language Development Lab at the University of Maryland, Research Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Coded research data examining how infants acquire and perceive language – Administered infant to adult studies – Recruited and schedule infant subjects for speech perception experiments
2016 - 2017	www.quizfun.co, Writer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Created TOEIC test practice material for English as a Second Language learners – Conceptualized and designed lesson plans – Wrote and edited TOEIC-related textbooks
2016 - 2017	Clio Language School, English Teacher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Planned lessons, worksheets, and homework assignments for beginner to advanced level students – Led classes and motivated students through ESL-based science experiments, theater projects, crafts, games, and other creative activities – Updated parents about daily activities, improvements, concerns, and feedback to enhance the student's performance and highlight their achievements
2010 - 2014	Passion NYC, Owner/Operator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Built and grew a fashion accessories wholesale company with over $3 million in sales by its third year – Organized and managed logistics, marketing, budgets, and sales for nationwide tradeshows – Trained, supervised, and guided sales, logistics, and customer service teams
2009 - 2010	Alexei Hay Studio, Studio Manager <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Facilitated successful workflow and timely deliverables – Managed and completed wraps, invoices, and financial reports for multiple projects across several clients – Negotiated with vendors for an average savings of 20% below client's allotted budget
2008 - 2009	Madonna, Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Assisted celebrity, Madonna Ciccone, with personal needs, styling, travel, gym, and office management – Compiled references and assisted in presentations for the development of Hard Candy Gym, the film W.E., and other major projects – Provided creative activities, positive reinforcement, and support for Madonna's children

Certifications & Continuing Education Units

For a complete list of certifications and CEUs, please visit www.yourspeechfriend.com/certifications

2022	Introduction to FEES (15 normal scope passes) with Carolina Speech Pathology
2021	Modified Barium Swallow Impairment Profile (MBSImP) with Northern Speech
2021	Lee Silverman Voice Treatment Loud (LSVT) Certificate
2021	A Parent-Mediated, Play-Based Treatment Program for Autism Spectrum Disorder